

Helping those in need in Anderson County with just the change in your pocket.

H2O is a project developed by Leadership Anderson Class XXII, a program of the Anderson Chamber of Commerce, to assist Anderson County residents who are in financial need of obtaining drinking water services. Through a partnership with your local water company and Anderson Interfaith Ministries (AIM), you may elect to voluntarily donate a small amount on each of your water bills for this charitable cause.

Collectively, these small donations from numerous customers will allow AIM to assist qualified Anderson County residents obtain safe drinking water.
